Adjectives

Adjectives are words that describe a noun. Adjectives can include descriptions of how a noun acts, looks, feels, smells, tastes, or sounds. Sometimes nouns will act like adjectives when they modify another noun (ex: tree house). My, your, his, hers, etc... are possessive adjectives. Numbers are also adjectives.

Underline the adjectives in each sentence.

1. Henry stared down at the brown dog.
2. Lila ate chocolate ice cream.
3. I have six cookies.
4. Kyle went to the store to buy strawberry yogurt.
5. Nina did a beautiful dance across the stage.
6. The grey cat sat on the orange chair.
7. Gina was fun to play with at recess.
8. The cow was black, but made white milk.
9. The seven little puppies ran around the huge yard.
